

Invitation for LANE participants

Dear LANE participants,

We would like to cordially invite you to participate in our special workshops on “Reducing bias and inequalities in science and academic careers”

at the LANE conference.

Why to participate:

Everyone carries assumptions about other people, assumptions that we use unconsciously every day. But these assumptions can get in the way of recognizing quality in academia and science. We would like raise everyone’s awareness about processes and assumptions creating gender bias and related kinds of bias, created by reactions to ascribed status markers (aspects a person cannot easily change such as gender, ethnicity, height, appearance).

Information:

- Tuesday, September 17; 3.00 pm - 6.30 pm; afterwards casual “Get together with snacks and drinks”
- Venue: Stadthalle (city hall) Fürth
- Format: interactive live experiments, talks, discussion
- No additional costs
- Workshop A
 - Participants: up to 15 professors
 - Guest presenter: Prof. Heather Hoffmeister (University of Frankfurt)
- Workshop B
 - Participants: up to 25 scientific employees
 - Guest presenter: Paul Sinzig (University of Frankfurt)

Please let us know via e-mail to info@lane-conference.org until July 31, 2024

- if you would like to participate
